EXCERPTS FROM ARTICLE PUBLISHED OCTOBER 1, 2015

Joe Fusco, Vice President of Casella Waste Systems, says J.C.P.'s allegations that the current board is stale are off base. "We have a great board and we have great leadership," says Fusco. "One way to look at it is we have a lot of experience both from a waste industry perspective and a public company perspective."

Fusco says the opposition candidates Frazier and Pappas don't have nearly the amount of practical experience.

As to the drop in Casella's stock value since 1997, Fusco says several steep stock market declines beginning in 2001 and more dramatically in 2008 hit many companies hard and shouldn't diminish gains Casella is making now.

"I think it's tempting to talk about things that happened two decades ago, but if you look at the last two and a half years where we've put in place a strategy and new board members we're doing quite well in fact since the beginning of this year, our stock price is up over 45 percent," says Fusco.
