Egan-Jones Joins ISS in Recommending That Casella Waste Systems Stockholders Vote the White Proxy Card for All of Casella's Director Nominees

Egan-Jones Acknowledges Casella's Success of Executing Key Strategies and Driving Improved Financial Performance

Casella Urges Stockholders to Follow Egan Jones' and ISS' Recommendations and Vote on the WHITE Proxy Card FOR ALL of Casella's Board Nominees

RUTLAND, Vt.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Casella Waste Systems, Inc. (Nasdaq:CWST) ("Casella" or the "Company"), a regional solid waste, recycling, and resource management services company, today announced that Egan-Jones, one of the leading U.S. proxy advisory firms, has published a report recommending that Casella stockholders vote the WHITE proxy card FOR ALL three of Casella's director-nominees - John W. Casella, William P. Hulligan and James E. O'Connor - standing for election at the 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on November 6, 2015. The Egan-Jones recommendation follows the recent recommendation of Institutional Shareholder Services Inc. (ISS), which also recommended that Casella stockholders vote the WHITE proxy card FOR ALL three of Casella's director nominees. As previously disclosed, JCP Investment Management, LLC ("JCP") is conducting a proxy contest and is seeking the election at the 2015 Annual Meeting of two director candidates in opposition to the highly qualified and very experienced nominees unanimously recommended by the Casella Board.

Commenting on the Egan-Jones report, Casella issued the following statement:

"We are very pleased that Egan-Jones, an extremely reputable and independent proxy advisory firm, has thoroughly examined the voting alternatives and has recommended that stockholders vote for all three of Casella's director nominees on the WHITE proxy card. As we have stated consistently, we do not believe that any of JCP's nominees have experience comparable to that of any of the highly qualified and very experienced members of the Casella Board that JCP is seeking to replace and we believe that JCP's proposed board candidates lack the relevant experience necessary to drive long-term stockholder value. We also do not believe that any of JCP's nominees would bring to Casella's Board any relevant insights, perspectives, skills or competencies not already present among the current members of the Casella Board"

In its recommendation, Egan-Jones highlighted the following:

- Voting FOR management's nominees and voting FOR management's proposals on the WHITE proxy card is in the best interest of Casella and its stockholders;
- JCP has made an insufficient case to warrant the election of its nominees to Casella's Board of Directors;
- Casella has continued to execute well against its key strategies and is driving improved financial performance; and
- Casella's Board is composed of nine highly-qualified and experienced directors, seven of whom are independent, and boasts a broad and diverse set of skills and experiences in the areas of solid waste collection, recycling, disposal services, operations, accounting, finance, mergers and acquisitions, capital markets, capital allocation, capital structure, risk management, and strategic planning.

Casella stockholders are reminded that their vote is extremely important, no matter how many or how few shares they own. All stockholders of record as of September 18, 2015 are entitled to vote at the 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Casella urges stockholders to vote FOR ALL three of Casella's director nominees - John W. Casella, William P. Hulligan and James E. O'Connor - on the WHITE proxy card today.

Stockholders may vote by returning the WHITE proxy card or by phone or Internet by following the instructions on the WHITE proxy card they have received. Stockholders are urged to discard any gold proxy card or voting instruction form they may have received from JCP. Even a WITHHOLD vote with respect to JCP's nominees on its gold proxy card will cancel any proxy previously given to Casella. If a stockholder previously signed a gold proxy card sent by JCP, that proxy card can be revoked by voting a new WHITE proxy card for the Board's recommended nominees. Only the latest-dated proxy will count.

In order for stockholders to have access to all relevant information concerning the 2015 Annual Meeting that Casella has made available, Casella has developed a website focused on the 2015 Annual Meeting, which is accessible at www.casellastockholders.com.

Casella is being advised in connection with the proxy contest by Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP and Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP. Mackenzie Partners, Inc. is serving as Casella's proxy solicitor.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain matters discussed in this press release are "forward-looking statements" intended to qualify for the safe harbors from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements can generally be identified as such by the context of the statements, including words such as "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "plan," "may," "would," "intend," "estimate," "guidance" and other similar expressions, whether in the negative or affirmative. Similarly, statements that describe the objectives, plans or goals of Casella are forward-looking. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the anticipated proxy contest by JCP Investment Management, LLC and the other participants in its solicitation, Casella's initiatives to improve Casella's performance and increase its growth and profitability, Casella's future operational and financial performance, Casella's actions taken or contemplated to enhance its long-term prospects and enhance value for its stockholders, Casella's efforts to execute on and implement its strategic plan, Casella's plans to simplify its business structure, Casella's actions taken or contemplated with respect to corporate and board governance, Casella's plans to improve its cash flows and reduce its risk exposure by divesting or closing operations that do not fit within its core strategy, Casella's plans to strengthen its balance sheet, promote financial flexibility and position Casella to achieve its target growth trajectory and Casella's plans to achieve its three (3) year financial objectives and to drive additional value creation for the benefit of all its stockholders. These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections and management's current beliefs and assumptions and, accordingly, are not guarantees of future performance. Such forward-looking statements, and all phases of Casella's operations, involve a number of risks and uncertainties, any one or more of which could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in Casella's forward-looking statements. There are a number of important risks and uncertainties that could cause Casella's actual events to differ materially from those indicated or implied by such forward-looking statements. These additional risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, risks related to the actions of JCP and other activist stockholders, including the amount of related costs incurred by Casella and the disruption caused to Casella's business activities by these actions and those risks detailed in Item 1A, "Risk Factors" in Casella's Form 10-KT for the transition period ended December 31, 2014, in its Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2015 and in its subsequent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Accordingly, you should not rely upon forward-looking statements as a prediction of actual results. Casella undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.
